

1. Create your One Computing Account

One.IU is Indiana University's Web-based application portal that provides a common front door to online services, including email, registration, tuition statements, payment options, and scholarship applications. You will need your Student ID number to create your One.IU Computing Account. This ten-digit number is located on your Admissions Certificate. If you cannot locate it, you can call the Admissions Office for assistance at 574-520-4839. If you would like assistance with setting up your account, please stop by the Gateway in the Administration Building, or phone (574) 520-5005.

1. To create your account, go to One.IU (<https://one.iu.edu/>) and search for Create My First IU Account
2. Click on Create My First IU Account. This will bring you into the Account Management Service (ams.iu.edu), which allows you to create the basic computing account(s) you will need at IU. To use AMS, you must provide your last name, date of birth, and University ID.
3. To activate your account, use your 10-digit student ID# from your admission certificate or the welcome letter from the Office of Student Services.
4. IU email is the official means of communication between a student and the University.
5. Students may grant third-party access to their One.IU accounts by submitting an authorization form.

PLEASE NOTE: If you created your One.IU account before you were admitted to IU South Bend as a degree-seeking student, please check your account to ensure that you have an IU email account. This account is the official channel for University updates and notices.

2. Confirm your Admission

Students must confirm their intention to attend IU South Bend through their One.IU accounts. Please type "Admission Confirmation" into the search bar and complete the online form.

Confirmation will activate your account within 24 hours. Once you have completed advisement, you will be ready to register for your classes.

PLEASE NOTE: You may continue to move through the checklist, completing items such as placement exams and orientation, but you will need to confirm your admission at some point before registration.

3. Take your Placement Exam(s)

Please check your Admission Certificate to learn which placement exams (English and/or math) you will be required to take prior to meeting with your academic advisor for registration.

A computer automated "due date" based on the time of your admission will be visible in One.IU. This "due date" can be disregarded as long as placement exams are completed before meeting an advisor to select classes.

Exemptions from Placement Exams

Students with AP scores, IB results, or who took college-level course work while in high school, as well as those who are transferring to IU South Bend from a regionally accredited post-secondary institution may be exempt from exams based upon exam equivalencies or transferable credit hours.
