1. Does the pantry have standard days/hours of operation?

- o Due to the varying schedules of our student and staff volunteers, the days/hours of operation vary weekly
- o We post our days/hours on our Facebook page, Titans Feeding Titans, every Monday by 10a ET
- o We also post our days/hours in the Daily Titan for release on Monday mornings

2. Who can access the food pantry and what do I need?

- o Current students, faculty, and staff can access the food pantry
- o Make sure to bring you and your Crimson Card

3. Are you looking for volunteers?

- o Always! And, if you need service hours for your club and/or organization, we can work with your faculty or staff sponsor so you can get credit for your volunteer hours in the food pantry

4. What types of items can I donate?

- o We accept a variety of perishable and non-perishable food items in addition to personal hygiene, household products, and even pet products

5. I have items to donate, where can I bring them?

- o There is a bin located outside of the food pantry (Fine Arts Building, room 111) where you can place your donations if the pantry is not open. The bin is checked daily so any donations can be promptly placed on our shelves.
- o Savanna Hebert-Annis (Administration Building, room 101) P | (574) 520-4115
- o Derrick Patty (Administration Building, room 167) P | (574) 520-4832

6. What types of items does the food pantry offer? Is there a limit on what I can take?

- o Perishable and non-perishable food items, personal hygiene products, household products, and even pet products
- o Yes, there are limits on what you can take per visit and on a monthly basis

7. Do you have food pantry-specific events throughout the year?

- o Yes! Throughout the semester, we have theme-specific events which we announce via Facebook and Daily Titan
